

Celebrating Marriage
Our Thai “Grandson”, Kai Khem (Sasi’s son) and Mod
Jan 11, 2014. Both have PhDs in Computer Science areas.

1. Jan. 3 – 13 Our 45 person evangelism team including 17 of the CCI Folk Drama (Likay) Troupe traveled to the border in Umphang, Tak area to perform and preach in six places. They had to unload the bus into six pickups to get the equipment through the narrow mountain road with 1219 tight curves. Andy Collins of CCI our official media man Lower left.

2. Achan Amorn center left, the director of the Evangelism Dept. of the Church of Christ in Thailand (CCT), did most of the preaching. Pastor Samuel center right translated into Karen. Many came each night to make decisions for Christ. In Laytongku, Talako man with the beard, said “I have been resisting Christ for more than 30 years, but now I want to make a public declaration of my faith.”

3. Some of the Likay team with Laurie and Sugar’s children Luk Nat far right and Luk Jan top left. They were great contributions to the team.

4. The Laytongku head man front right enjoys the program with Joan. The last time Joan came was by elephant about 20 years ago.

5. Laytongku Christmas - feeding 600 visitors from surrounding villages for two nights. About 1000 came each night.

6. Five were baptized in the stream, including two CCI’s performers.

7. This 80 year old lady was also baptized.

She came to faith after we were turned back in frustration by the flooded river last July. While we waited we presented the gospel to her. God turned our frustration into joy.

8. Christmas at the Lawa Church, Lawa Hostel near our home in Chiang Mai. The hostel is supported through TCF.

9. Thammanikom Church members came to put on a Christmas pageant sharing with the Lawa Church.

10. Feb. 9, Sugar, president of our Pan Rak Foundation, came for Got & Sue's wedding.

11. Got (Somsak) graduated from the McGilvary College of Divinity where Allan teaches and Sue graduated from the Karen Bible School in Sang-klaburi, south of Laytongku. Saw River, Sue's bible school teacher, blessed the marriage. Saw River and his wife were our first evangelists in Laytongku after we drank the water of covenant with the Talako in 1990.

They were pushed out in 1993 and no one was baptized until 2008, but now there are 78 Christians.

12. March, David preached & Suuzanne, Peter and Sahale, sang hymns in Kachin and Burmese in Thammanikom Church celebrating the Global Day of Prayer for Burma.

13. Sasi left corner leads a Thammanikom Church Sunday school teacher's retreat at the FBR center.
