

August 2013

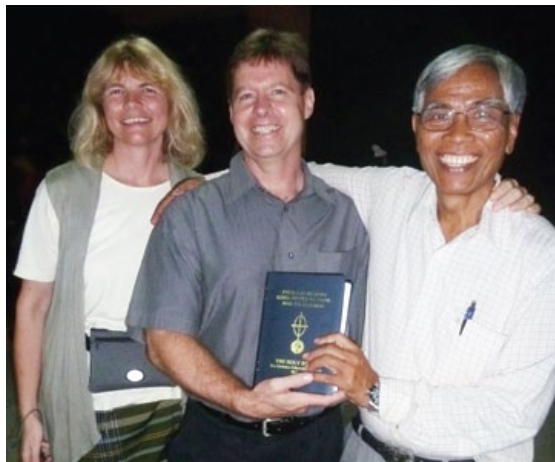

July 2013 It was amazing to see the change in 12 year old Embra's life after we were able to bring her across the border to have her cleft palate corrected. She asked to receive baptism before she returned to her Wa people in Burma (Myanmar).

Some of the 2012 and 2013 happenings for rejoicing and prayer

CCI Dancers (Left) Joan with CCI staff after speaking at the Week of Evangelism, Chiangmai Christian School Aug. 15, 2013.(Right) CCI is leading weeks of evangelism in 21 schools from June to Nov. 2013. Last year more than 3,000 walked forward to receive Christ. In August 2013, 50 grade 12 students came forward in one school. Many were at the top of their class.

Nov. 2012 May Chappuis (Left) of Bibles par Internet and Mark Seibert (Center) of CFE and Bible League Canada present 10,000 Wa bibles to Pastor John Saniex for distribution in the Wa Church. Now we are praying to print 2000 Hymn books.

Nov.-Dec. 2012, Allan Visited David and family in FBR camp deep in Myanmar.

Nutjaree

(Right) Jan. 2013 Nutjaree is teaching sanitation to mid-wives from Burma, Talako villagers and nurses at the Laytongku border clinic. She now works at McCormick Hospital (Christian), Chiang Mai, after receiving a 4-year nursing scholarship from Armada Foundation through TCF.

May 2013 Installing Pastor Sittisak Saenjai at Lamkajao Church (Lao Song).

(Above) Nine baptisms at Laytongku Jan 2013. Since Easter 2012, we have had 56 baptisms: 24 Pa-Oh, 19 Karen, 8 Wa, 2 Northern Thai, 1 Mong, 1 Akha, 1 Lao Song-Chinese. Six more are studying for baptism on Sept. 8. Recently Pastor John baptized 20 more Wa just across the border.

May 2013 The Lao Song in Pai Hu Chang village, Nakhon Pathom show us pictures taken 50 years ago when they were children. They dressed in their traditional attire and honored us by singing the songs they had learned from us so many years ago. Then we enjoyed dancing. Because of their bondage to their ancestral spirits, there are still no Christians in that village. However, Sasitorn who lives next door to us is from that village. She is like our daughter and is a strong Christian leader.

Announcing the official opening of the Pan Rak Foundation.

Pan Rak means sharing love. This foundation gives us non-profit legal status in Thailand. All TCF funds as well as gifts from inside Thailand will be channeled through Pan Rak. The foundation was dedicated August 5, 2013 by the board, the staff and many who receive grants. This date also celebrated Allan's 84th birthday.

Our staff includes (Left to right): Kittikoon (Kit) Wichitponpaiboon – Operations; Amy Galazka – Deputy Director; Benjawan (Ben) Thanyarak – Finance; Carol Ryan – Health; Laurie Dawson – Co-director; Allan Eubank – Executive Director. TCF provided scholarships for Ben to receive her MBA and Kit a BA in English at Payap University, Chiang Mai. Only Ben and Kit receive salaries through Pan Rak Fdn. Ben and Kit came from our Bueng Klung Hostel on the border. Kit is the son of the Pastor Samuel at Bueng Klung.

We will be in the US for our Annual TCF Board Meeting at East Dallas Christian Church Oct. 19, 2013, and to visit churches, friends and family for a month.

Thank you for your prayers and support.
