Allan and Joan Eubank

—Missionaries in Thailand for over 55 years—
are so grateful for your help.

The Eubanks were instrumental in creating the Thai Christian Foundation in Dallas, Texas as a way for people to send tax-deductible gifts to aid children and families from Thailand and Burma/Myanmar and to bring the word of God into their lives. Over the years, the Eubanks and their four children located in Chiang Mai, Thailand began and directed such organizations as the Christian Communication Institute (CCI) in Payap University where the Thai dance-drama troupe called “Likay,” performs bible related stories across Thailand, the USA, and many other countries. The Eubanks also minister to many ethnic groups such as Northern Thai, Chinese, Pa-Oh, Karen, Shan, Mong, Akha, and Wa (in Burma). They have also trained an uncountable number of ministers, musicians, and religious leaders from multiple denominations. More recently, Pan Rak Foundation run by Thai nationals, was created to be the sister organization to TCF. The Division of Overseas Ministries of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) supported and encouraged the Eubanks until their recent retirement. Although the Eubanks are officially “retired,” they continue to live and work in Thailand and surrounding areas.

We would love to hear from you!

2017 Cleft Lip and Palate Project

For Thai, Wa, and other hill tribe children who need life-changing surgery

1) E-Tuay, age 13

1) After surgery

2) Ai Nat, age 11

2) After surgery

Imagine if your child had a cleft palate but you had no money for surgery?

- The project originally began for Thai hill tribe children by the YMCA. Today, there are very few lip and palate deformities in Thailand, perhaps due to improved diet.
- The problem still exists for hundreds of Wa and hill tribe children in Burma/Myanmar—see photos.
- Staff from Pan Rak Foundation escort the children and family members across the border to Chiang Rai.
- Overbrook Hospital in Chiang Rai, the YMCA, and volunteer doctors and surgeons from Canada's Operation Smile, conduct the surgery and pay for half the cost.
- TCF provides for the $600 of remaining surgical expenses per child as well as recovery care including food, lodging, a caregiver, and a translator for an additional $150 per child.
- TCF also introduces the children and families to the love of Jesus Christ through witness and example.

Specific Needs:

So far: 64 operations completed.

Needed: 154 Wa children currently waiting—we will take as many children as funds allow—up to 30 children per quarter.

How many can you help?

Costs Per Child:

- A. 1 Child: Recovery care only = $150; Surgery only = $600.
- B. 5 Children: Recovery care only = $750; Surgery only = $3,000.
- C. 10 Children: Recovery care only = $1,500; Surgery only = $6,000.
- D. 30 Children: Surgery + recovery care = $22,500.
- E. Other: Any combination and amount you wish to give. _____.

2017 Education Assistance Project

For students in Thailand and Burma/Myanmar who need help and hope to complete their education

Anan:

"I am in grade 12. My hobby is playing guitar and singing. My favorite subject is English."

Students completing their education improve themselves and their families:

- Without assistance, many needy students in Thailand and Burma/Myanmar have no hope of obtaining an education.
- Currently, the Thai Christian Foundation (TCF) is providing funding for:
  - 8 high school students,
  - 5 university students,
  - 2 bible school students,
  - 19 Lawa (Wa) elementary and high school students with partial funding for electricity at their hostel and school fees.
- Pan Rak Foundation—a sister organization to TCF located in Thailand—has an education committee that accepts applications, interviews students, relays education needs to TCF, and keeps close contact with students once accepted.
- TCF hopes to double the number of high school, university, and bible school students receiving assistance.

Wichuda—grade 12

"I am a new believer with my family who changed from Animist (spirit worship) to Christ. I plan to study Public Health Care at the University."

Naw:

"I am from Laytongku (Talak) village. I am a Fourth year student at Chrestos Bible School. After I graduate, I want to go back to serve my people in the area I'm from."

Yutthaphan from Tak province:

"I am a first-year university student majoring in Music. My ambition is to become a musician."
