

THAI LIGHTS

Christmas Celebrations

Chiang Rai, Mae Sai & Tachileik Trip (Nov 30-Dec 1)

The Pan Rak (TCF) team met, in Chiang Rai, with the leaders of the 2nd District of the Church of Christ in Thailand. We are developing plans to reach the Wa along the NW Thai-Myanmar border. That night we went to Mae Sai on the border and visited the church of Adul, the Wa boy who spoke with the English divers in the dramatic cave rescue last year. We worshipped with 30 Young Wa Christians from across the border and Adul lead in prayer (1). The following day we gave out Wa NT and Hymnals at the Wa Church in Tachileik, Myanmar and finally visited the Wa Bible School (2) there. The students danced and sang from the new hymnals (3). Pan Rak T-shirts (4) were given out, with 1 John 4:19 written on the back: "We love because He first loved us". We plan to go again in March.

Anusarn Sunthorn School for the Deaf, Chiang Mai (Dec 9)

The Pan Rak team worshipped with (5), hugged (6), gave gifts (7) and fed (8) the deaf students. We also plan to go again in March for worship and lunch. Pan Rak provides the food.

Pa-Oh (Dec 16, afternoon)

We enjoyed Korean style BBQ (9) and a night of fellowship. We are planning a series of retreats during summer break (March-May) for the young Pa-Oh - Please pray for these.

1 Wa Student Hostel, Chiang Mai (Dec 16, morning)

There was worship, dancing, acting (1), singing, gift giving (2), fun games (3) and eating again.

4 5 6 Cheshire Home for the Disabled (Dec 17)

Besides Christmas, Pat (4), Tip (5) and Joan (6) visits almost every week for music training and sharing love.

5 baptisms in Umphang

Umphang Trip (Jan 5-7)

Pan Rak visited Saw Mae Village and celebrated a late Christmas with games, songs, food, gifts and preaching. People from all around the region came to join us for a night of celebration. We also had the joy of performing 5 baptisms in Umphang Church. 55 years ago when Allan first came to this area there were no Christians. This trip, we brought gifts and some financial help for the 16 pastors and evangelists serving the many Christians that are now in this area. Your faithful prayers and support helped make this happen.
